Interview Summary

In an applicant initiated personal interview on September 11, 2007, with the applicant's representatives, Aashish Karkhanis and Srikant Viswanadham, the following arguments were presented with regards to claim 1 of the present application discussing the prior art Omori et al. (U.S. PG PUB No. 20020184405).

Applicant's representative believes the difference between the application and Omori is the processing linkage, which is done in sequence based on the specific processing of the service. Applicant's representative and Examiner agreed that further search/consideration of the possible amendments may be required.
